

Neighbourhood Disturbance Diary

This diary is for neighbours, renters, or community members who wish to report behaviour that impacts the peace, safety, or enjoyment of their home or surrounding area. This may include issues involving renters living in EACH Housing Limited (EHL) managed properties or other individuals in the community.

Common examples include:

- Excessive noise (e.g. loud music, shouting, frequent late-night activity)
- Aggressive or intimidating behaviour
- Property damage or misuse
- Blocking access to driveways or shared areas
- Ongoing anti-social conduct

If you feel safe, you may choose to speak with the person involved. If that's not possible, or the issue continues, use this diary to record incidents and submit it to EACH Housing for review and possible action.
